If you are not sure about something in this agreement, you should get independent legal advice before you sign it.

Your landlord will probably print out two copies of this agreement for you both to sign - one for you to keep (known as the 'original') and the other for the landlord to keep (known as the 'counterpart').

This agreement is in eight parts. Each part contains numbered sentences known as clauses. Each clause has a heading which describes what that clause refers to.

A Definitions

We need to use some legal terms in this tenancy agreement. By providing this list of definitions we aim to help explain some terms that you may find in this tenancy agreement.

Term	Meaning
The premises	This includes any parts of the house or flat, gardens, paths, fences, boundaries or other outbuildings or parking spaces that belong to us and form part of the tenancy. When the tenancy is part of a larger building, the premises include the right to use shared access and other similar facilities.
The building	If the premises are part of a larger building, such as a flat in a block of flats, this term means that building and any of its grounds.
Landlord, we, us	This includes the person or people who own the premises. This gives us the right to take back the premises at the end of the tenancy.
Tenant, you, your	This includes anyone who is entitled to use the premises under the terms of the tenancy.
Joint and several liability	Joint and several liability means that both individually and jointly all of the tenants are individually and jointly responsible for all tenants' responsibilities during the tenancy with the exception of rent, where the individual and guarantor named (where applicable) on this tenancy agreement are liable for their individual rent.
Guarantor	This is someone who agrees to meet your responsibilities under this tenancy agreement if you do not keep to them (for example, paying your rent).
The term of the tenancy	How long the tenancy lasts as set out in this agreement and shown in clause B4.
Contents	Any of our furniture, furnishings, carpets, sanitaryware (toilet bowls, cisterns, baths, basins, showers and other fittings), decorative features, electrical equipment, other equipment or any floor, ceiling or wall including anything listed in any inventory we supply (see below).
Our permission	If the agreement states you need our permission to do something, you must ask us to give you our permission in writing to avoid misunderstandings later.
Inventory and condition of the property	The document (in Section G) we have had prepared showing details of our fixtures, fittings, furnishings, equipment and so on, including the condition of the premises in general. We will rely on the inventory at the end of the tenancy to assess any damage (other than reasonable wear and tear), so you should check it carefully at the start of the tenancy.

- h. You will ensure, jointly, with the other users of the common areas that the areas are left in the same clean condition as they were at the start of the tenancy.

F Our responsibilities

We agree to do the following:

1. Cleaning

We will make sure the premises are in a clean and tidy condition before your tenancy starts and make sure all appliances are in good condition and working properly and clean the communal areas in accordance with the ANUK code for Larger Developments.

We will pay any other bills for the premises during the tenancy except any amount which you have to pay under part E of this agreement.

We will not increase the rent during the tenancy.

4. Our appliances

We will take reasonable steps to make sure the gas and electrical appliances, and other similar mechanical appliances in the premises for which we are responsible, work properly. We will repair them at the start of and during the tenancy, as long as the repairs are needed as a result of reasonable wear and tear.

5. Repairs

Section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 as amended by Section 116 of the Housing Act 1988 applies to this agreement. This means that we are responsible for repairing and maintaining the installations in the premises which supply water, gas and electricity, and any sanitaryware (basins, sinks, baths, toilet bowls, cisterns, showers and so on), but not other fixtures, fittings and appliances for using water, gas or electricity. We will repair and maintain the installations in the premises for general heating, cooking and heating water. We will take account of the age, character and life of the premises and the area they are in to decide what level of repair we need to carry out.

6. What we do not have to repair

We will insure your contents against flood, fire and theft subject to the limitations and exclusions of the relevant insurance policy which are described in the insurance documentation which you will receive upon arrival at the premises. Please consider if you require further insurance.

9. If you cannot live in the premises - suspending your rent

If the insurers consider that you cannot live in the premises because of damage to them or the building by any insured risk and the damage is not your fault, or they have not been damaged as a result of something you have or have not done (we call this negligence), you will not have to pay any rent until you can live in the premises again. Or, you may give us written notice to end the tenancy immediately. If you end the tenancy we will pay you any rent you have paid to us for any period after the end of the tenancy.

10. Not paying you compensation

We will not pay you any compensation if you cannot live in the premises and we have told you that you do not have to pay us rent until you can live in the premises again.

11. Suspending part of the rent

If you cannot live in or use part of the premises you will not have to pay a percentage of the rent until the whole premises are fit to live in again.

12. Arbitration

If we and you cannot agree on a percentage to pay under clause F11 above, we may use arbitration to sort the matter out (under arbitration an independent professional will settle any dispute between us), as long as you and we agree and agree to share the cost of arbitration. This clause does not affect either our or your right to take a dispute to the courts in the usual way.

G Inventory and condition of the premises

We and you agree to the following:

1. Inventory

We will be responsible for providing in each bedroom, a bed (complete with mattress and pillow), curtains, carpet, bedside cabinet, wardrobe, desk and chair. In the shared kitchen, we will provide adequate kitchen appliances including cooker, microwave, fridge and freezer. In the shared lounge, we will provide adequate seating and a television (which will have a licence registered to it).

2. Accepting the inventory

You will check the inventory when you move into the premises and unless you tell us otherwise, we will assume that you agree to the inventory and description of the condition of the premises as being a true and full record of the condition of the premises at the time you moved into the property.

3. Checking the inventory

At the end of the tenancy, we will check the inventory. We expect that furniture described in G1 to be returned to us in good condition (subject to wear and tear during the tenancy).

H Ending the tenancy

1. Our right to re-enter the property - known as forfeiture

The Protection from Eviction Act 1977 protects you from us ending your tenancy immediately. It says we must get a court order to repossess (take back) the premises if you break the tenancy and you have failed to put right or sort out the problem in a reasonable time.

If you are not sure about your rights or you need more information to help you understand this clause, you should get advice from a solicitor or your local Citizens Advice.

We are entitled to repossess the premises, and this tenancy will end immediately, if you:

- a. do not pay all or any of the rent 14 days after it was due, whether or not we have formally asked you to pay it;
- b. do not keep to any significant agreement or major responsibility in this agreement;
- c. have a bankruptcy order made against you or your guarantor, or you transfer your estate or sign any deed of arrangement for the benefit of your creditors; or
- d. leave the premises and do not mean to return.

2. Grounds for grant of possession

A court will grant us possession if any of the circumstances mentioned in the following grounds (reasons) shown in the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by the Housing Act 1996) applies:

Ground 8

At both the time that we give notice that we will start court proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings you are still:-

- a. at least eight weeks behind with your rent if you pay rent every week or every fortnight;
- b. at least two months behind with your rent if you pay rent every month;
- c. at least three months behind with your rent if you pay rent every three months;
- d. at least three months behind with your rent if you pay your rent each year.

3. Possible grounds for grant of possession

The court might grant us possession in the following circumstances:

Ground 10

At both the time we give notice that we will start court proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings you owe some rent.

Ground 11

You have a history of often being behind with your rent.

Ground 12

You have broken one or more of your responsibilities under the tenancy agreement.

3. Continued...

Ground 13

The condition of the premises or the shared areas of the building of which the premises is part of has deteriorated because of your behaviour or that of any other person living there.

Ground 14

You, or someone living or visiting the premises, have been guilty of causing a nuisance or annoying neighbours. Or, a person living with or visiting you has been convicted of using the premises, or allowing it to be used, for illegal purposes or has committed an offence which is one they can be arrested for in the premises or in an area near the premises.

Ground 15

The condition of the furniture has deteriorated because it has been badly treated by you or someone living at the premises.

Ground 17

We gave the tenancy to you after you or a person acting on your instructions gave a false statement.

If any of these conditions apply to you, we may re-enter the premises and the tenancy will end.

However, if any of these conditions apply and you are living in the premises, we will not repossess the premises without getting a court order first.

Any action we take to repossess the premises will not restrict or limit any other legal rights we may have.

4. Giving notice at the end of the fixed term

You must give us at least one month's notice in writing when you want to end the tenancy. The notice must not end before the last date of the tenancy set out in clause B4 and must end on the day before the rent is due. You will still be legally responsible for paying the rent and for all other responsibilities under this agreement until the notice ends and you have moved out of the premises.

5. Our actions at the end of the fixed term

We will give you two months' notice in writing to confirm that your tenancy will end on the date in B4. If you wish to extend your tenancy please contact the Accommodation Office who will agree this with you.
